You have been told also that life is darkness, and in your weariness you echo what was said by the weary.

And I say that life is indeed darkness save when there is urge,

And all urge is blind save when there is knowledge,

And all knowledge is vain save where there is work,

And all work is empty save when there is love;

And when you work with love you bind yourself to yourself, and to one another, and to God.

The world needs our graduates because it needs optimists. Men confused by a widening credibility gap need the living bridge offered by those who have faith; men experiencing a crisis of confidence need the support of others who have hope; men frustrated by neglect and even hatred cry out for those who can offer love. Trinity High School exists to provide these values and its graduates must be prepared to offer them to a world desperately searching—perhaps in the wrong places—for peace, for happiness —for God.

Members of our class of 1967 enjoy a special bond of unity for they have shared the difficulties inherent in a critical period of personal and school growth. No other class can as truly say "I have grown up with my school," for this school's emerging greatness owes much to the emerging adults who represent the first class to complete four years striving to live up to the challenge of "Ad Summum Bonum."

High school is a microcosm, for it summarizes life in its demands and opportunities. Its four years hint at the laughter and tears of a lifetime; its problems contain the seeds of world triumph or tragedy. Our seniors generally have profited from the lessons this life-in-miniature has offered. They have kicked at the walls of discipline and found they were there for a purpose, they have looked long at failure and discovered within themselves the means for transforming it into success. Above all, they have enriched themselves by increasing their ability to relate to other persons in confidence and respect. They have learned to understand and accept themselves and, in so doing, have come to see others as more significant and loveable. This is the starting point for optimism and, more important, a meaningful love of God.

Our seniors have looked for God in a world that proclaims His death, and they have found Him. They have found Him in a special way within themselves and other persons and this discovery has forced meaning into their lives. In many ways their life at Trinity has made them sharers in the life of the Trinity; individually and collectively they have grown in knowledge and love, and it is precisely this growth that has made them yesterday valuable to their school and tomorrow precious to their world. As principal I have seen these Shamrocks grow and I am grateful for the opportunity because I needed the optimism they gave me.

That Trinity High School has contributed to this discovery and growth is a great source of pride and joy for all of us. Those of us who remain know that graduation will scatter the 1967 Shamrocks everywhere—on campuses, behind desks, in battle-torn jungles. But we also know that wherever life finds them it will find men and women strong in their faith in God, consistent in their hope for improving the condition of man, generous in their willingness to give themselves to others. May God continue to bless the Class of 1967 with the graces necessary to give their world what it so desperately needs—the benefits of Christian Optimism.

Coach Bekelja Speaks:

. . . I am not going to stand here and make excuses for a 3 and 7 season. A season in which we personally found great satisfaction in gaining small victories in a constant uphill battle against despair and mediocrity. Not mediocrity in physical ability but in mental attitudes. How can there be a difference in physical ability when we have men like John Martin, who threw 222 passes completing 98 for 1,365 yards with only 7 interceptions, ending up second in Central Pennsylvania in the passing category. Bill Balaban with a total offense of 961 yards and 13 TDs finishing in the top ten for rushing yardage, averaging 5 yards per carry. Fred Updegraff ranking 9th in pass catching until his injury, averaging 14 yards per each of his 29 receptions. I know the physical abilities of Richard Horstman, George Yeager, Charles Algier, John Scholz, John Powers and Bill Benning can measure up to any lineman in the area. Bob Sorace was injured the second day of practice on August 19th. His injury was so severe he could have quit that very day. But instead Bob practiced and went for treatments three nights a week for 13 weeks just to play for the final 3½ games. This is sacrifice. This is desire.

On September 23 over 5,000 fans witnessed Trinity and McDevitt meet in the first game of a series that promised to be a great one. Those present saw scholastic football at its best—clean, hard, and exciting. Bishop McDevitt won the game, 33–20.

The Trinity fans present saw more than a game, however. They saw something as spectacular as the first nuclear explosion, something as dramatic as a child suddenly becoming man, something as welcome as sunshine after a storm. For, on that Friday evening between 8:00 and 10:00 P.M. Trinity High School, in the person of our 1966 football team, served notice to Harrisburg area that the SHAMROCKS HAVE ARRIVED! . . .

When Brother Andrew entered the dressing room to congratulate the team on their effort, Mr. Bekelja was leading the team in prayer. The coach then told the boys that he was prouder of them in defeat than he had been of any group of athletes he had known. He told them to walk with their heads high and with their eyes on victory in our seven remaining games. Brother only nodded and waved.

To say that Trinity is proud of this team that wouldn't quit would be an understatement. To say that we compliment Bill Balaban, Pat Gillis, John Martin, Fred Updegraff and all of our standouts would be unnecessary—our cheers have already told them much more.

Trinity Arrived

The Varsity blasted McDevitt 66–61. The J.V.'s upended their opponents 50–35, and the Frosh took McDevitt's yearlings 40–30.

Do you believe it? The Varsity game was dominated by Trinity until the fourth quarter when the Crusaders went up by one, but not for long. Trinity came back for a field goal, and capped it with four perfect foul shots by Kevin Morissey, clutch scorer. Stellar performances were put in by Spike Fuhrman, Bill Benning, and Lee Arcadipane, with great rebounding and ball handling. Last but not least, Tom Rodrigo, who rebounded excellently and followed up shots for tap-ins, sank crucial shots and was high scorer.

All was woven together through the great efforts of Coach Yucka for the Varsity, Coach Kostelac for the J.V.'s and Coach Cackovic for our freshmen. They and their players put down McDevitt three times in one day, and made Trinity No. 1 second to None.

The 1967 Green and White Staff wishes to express its gratitude to all those who have contributed to the publication of our yearbook.

We thank our administration and faculty for their patient cooperation, especially:

Brother E. Andrew, for his encouraging message to the graduates and his continued support of our work;

Sister Marita Catherine, our advisor;

Sister Miriam Kathleen, for her assistance with art and printing;

Sister Marita James, for her helpful suggestions;

We wish to thank our office staff for their generous help;

Mr. William Buser, of William's Studio for excellent formal portraits;

Mr. William Lau, of William's Studio, who gave time, humor and cooperation above and beyond the call of duty, as well as superior photography;

Mr. Neal Layser, representative of the American Yearbook Company, for his advice and generous assistance;

Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., for permission to reprint passages from The Prophet by Kahlil Gibran. All headlines, unless otherwise indicated, are adapted from this work.

We also thank Homerooms IB and IC Boys, and 3C Girls for donating the final page of the 1967 Green and White.
